POLICE CRIMINAL COMPLAINT

Docket Number:	Date Filed:	OTNLiveScan Number G 821979-4	Complaint/Incident Number 18-03595
Defendant Name	First: ANTHONY	Middle:	Last: RICCHIUTO

On October 11th, 2018 at approximately 0020 hours, University of Pittsburgh Police responded to Panther Central for two males that were assaulted on Fifth Avenue.

When Officers arrived on scene, they spoke with two males (identified by PA OLN as Stanley Umeweni and OH OLN as Aaron Hill, both students) who stated that while they were walking west on Fifth Avenue crossing Atwood Street, a dark red SUV honked at them as they crossed Atwood Street. As they walked past, Umeweni gave the middle finger to the driver and the driver made a left onto Fifth Avenue and stopped in the middle of the intersection and instructed the males to meet them at the next corner. The next corner was Meyran Avenue. Umeweni and Hill were walking back to their house on Ophelia Street so they were walking towards Meyran Avenue anyway. Two white males exited the vehicle and walked towards Hill and Umeweni. The driver lifted his shirt and displayed a firearm. Hill and Umeweni began walking backwards away from the males.

On October 19, 2018, I, Detective Hamilton along with Detective Matta re-interviewed both Stanley Umeweni and Arron Hill to obtain more information. Hill was interviewed first and gave the following the account. That he and Umeweni were walking west on Fifth Avenue in the Oakland area. They had just passed the intersection of Oakland Avenue and were approaching the intersection of Fifth Avenue and Atwood Street. As they approached the intersection, the walk light was flashing orange. A light blue vehicle is waiting for a green signal to make a left turn from Atwood Street on to Fifth Avenue. Both Hill and Umeweni waited for the light blue vehicle to clear the crosswalk and both proceeded across Atwood Street. As they reached the other side, a red vehicle (SUV) was approaching the intersection of Atwood Street and Fifth Avenue, and was aggressively blowing his car horn. Hill said that he gestured to the SUV by raising both arms in the air.

Hill then said that the red SUV made a left turn from Atwood Street onto Fifth and stopped in the travel lane next the bus lane. The driver of the red SUV said, "Do you all have problem mother fucker?" The driver of the red SUV then said, "Meet us at the next corner." Hill said that the red SUV then continued on Fifth Avenue, and made a left turn on to Meyran Avenue.

As they approached the intersection of Fifth Avenue and Meyran Avenue, the driver and passenger were approaching Hill and Umeweni. The driver, described as a white male, with dark hair, wearing a black tee shirt and tan shorts pulled up his tee shirt and placed his hand on a handgun that was inside his waistband. Hill said that he and Umeweni both place their hands in the air and started to retreat by walking backwards. The second male that was with the driver said, "We do not need a gun, we will kick their asses." As Hill and Umeweni retreated, the males were saying, "Let's go motherfuckers."

Hill pulled out his cell phone and call 911. While on the line with the operator Hill placed his phone on speaker so that the operator would hear the conversation between both parties. They followed Hill and Umeweni to the intersection of Atwood Street and Fifth Avenue. At this point, the larger male had grabbed Umeweni and struck him in the arm with a closed fist. After striking Umeweni both males ran back down Fifth Avenue in the direction were there car was parked. Hill and Umeweni both continued to Panther Central and called both the City of Pittsburgh Police and the University of Pittsburgh Police.

On October 19, 2018, I, Detective Hamilton along with Detective Matta re-interviewed Stanley Umeweni. Umeweni gave the following account of what had occurred. He and Hill were walking on Fifth Avenue, heading west. As they, both approached the intersection of Fifth Avenue and Atwood Street, and were crossing, the light turn red for them. As they approached the other side, a red vehicle heading north on Atwood and was approaching the intersection and started to excessively honking his car horn. As the vehicle made a left turn on to Fifth Avenue from Atwood Street, Umeweni made eye contact with the driver, "yelling at the driver to FUCK OFF". The driver then stopped on Fifth Avenue, and replied to meet him at the next intersection.

When Umeweni and Hill approached the intersection of Fifth Avenue and Atwood Street. Umeweni said that the driver, a white male wearing a dark tee shirt and tan short approached them along with the driver's friend, a white male large build wearing a blue shirt and jeans. He said, as they got closer the driver yelled, "What's the problem", Umeweni replied, "Why are you hocking at us". The driver then lifted his shirt and showed us that he had a gun in a holster inside his waistline. He said back off back off, saying put that away were not armed, and he was scared. The driver friend then got in front of the driver and said, "I don't need a gun". The larger male keep approaching taking a swing at Umeweni, striking his arm. Umeweni then said that after he was struck, both of them turned ran in the direction of Meyran Avenue, were they parked there car.

It should be noted, that cameras in the area of the incident were reviewed and the video evidence strongly supports what Hill and Umeweni alleged. The video shows the altercation and the two males parking the vehicle and running over to confront the two victims. The video also shows the driver lifting his shirt as he approaches them.

The vehicle in this incident was a red jeep, registration was unknown at that time, but is a PA plate. The Jeep had white decals on the rear and side windows. On October 11, 2018, I, Detective Hamilton reviewed the surveillance footage for this incident. I was able to get several pictures of the suspect vehicle and put them out to Patrol Units. The surveillance footage will be available for court and backs the statements of both victims.

On October 12, 2018, at 10:22hrs, Lt. Basile, along with Deputy Chief Lamb and Det. McDaniel were traveling out bound on Forbes Ave. when they noticed a vehicle matching the description of the red Jeep involved in this case. They followed the vehicle onto DeSoto St. and stopped it in a UPMC parking lot. They identified the driver and spoke with him briefly about the night the incident took place. He agreed to meet with them at the station for an interview about what happened that night

On 10/12/2018, Detective McDaniel along with Lt. Basile met with Anthony Ricchiuto regarding his vehicle matching the description of the prior incident. Ricchiuto was Mirandize by Lt. Basile and was asked about his whereabouts on October 11, 2018. He stated that he went out to Thirsty Scholars on Fifth Ave but it was closed so he and his brother (Brian Ricchiuto) went to the Garage Door to meet some friends to celebrate a co-workers promotion. After some time at the Garage Door, he and his brother (Brian Ricchiuto) left the bar. Anthony stated he recalls driving up Atwood Street and approached two males in the cross walk and which they exchanged words. Anthony then drove away and parked on Meyran. Anthony and his brother started walking down Fifth Avenue towards the males and more words were exchanged. The males could have observed the firearm in his waistband and then fled. Anthony said they chased the males a few feet then went back to the car and then drove away.

With the statements made by the victims, corroborating video footage, and the actor's admissions, I, Det. Hamilton spoke with ADA Ryan Kiray and I will be filling the following charges against Anthony Ricchiuto:

At this time, I respectfully request Anthony Ricchiuto be charge with the following:(2) COUNTS OF Simple Assault 2701,A3 M2, (2) counts of Harassment 2709 A1 M3, and (2) counts of Disorder Conduct 5503 A4.
